

MON
NOV 14
2016

GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT FAIR / & keynote speaker Wajahat Ali

4:00 -
6:30 PM

Atrium & DeLuca Forum: Discovery Building

Enjoy international food, live music and dance while learning about international opportunities on campus, within the community and around the world.

Be inspired by Wajahat Ali as he speaks about social entrepreneurship, a movement by young people choosing to change the world.

5:00 PM

Welcome from UW-Madison Chancellor Rebecca Blank

5:15 PM

Keynote Speaker Wajahat Ali Followed by Q&A

Wajahat Ali is a journalist, writer, lawyer, an award-winning playwright, a TV host, and a consultant for the U.S. State Department. As Creative Director of Affinis Labs, he works to create social entrepreneurship initiatives that have a positive impact for marginalized communities, and to empower social entrepreneurs, young leaders, creatives, & communities to come up with innovative solutions to tackle world problems.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

International Education Week (IEW) is a joint initiative of the US Department of State and the US Department of Education. IEW at UW-Madison is sponsored by:

The International Division, CALS International Programs, the Center for Leadership & Involvement, International Academic Programs, International Engineering Studies & Programs, International Internship Program, International Student Services, Institute for Regional & International Studies, and Wisconsin School of Business International Programs.

International Division
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

International Education
Week

international.wisc.edu/IEW